

Michigan Mud 2019 is brought to you in collaboration with the Michigan Ceramic Art Association (MCAA) and Oakland Community College. This day-long conference will be held on the campus of Oakland Community College Auburn Hills. This biennial event is open to the public and features the nationally renowned artist – Julia Galloway. Also offered will be demonstrations and lectures by regional ceramic artists, a student show, vendor tables and the opportunity to network with the state’s vibrant ceramics community.

The Michigan Mud Presenters Exhibition and Artists Reception will be co-hosted and curated by the MCAA and the Holding House. This evening event will be held at the Holding House, an artist-run workspace in Core City, Detroit, that offers equitable art access to the community through multi-disciplinary, inter-cultural art experiences and exhibitions.

Keynote Speaker	Presenters and demonstrators	Lecturer
Julia Galloway	Julia Galloway David Velez Felix Ebi Baralaye Lane Kaufmann Emily LoPresto Travis Erxleben Jessika Edgar	Paul Kotula